My info naman about our country (of course, The Philippines):

DID YOU KNOW: Here in the Philippines, marami talagang mga billboards na nakikita talaga natin dun sa buong kanto ng Pilipinas, then, there are too many festivals here in the Philippines (such as Sinulog in Cebu, Panagbenga in Baguio and Kadayawan in Davao and also, Masskara Festival in Bacolod). Here in the Philippines, may mga tricycle, pedicab at saka mga jeepney na sinasakyan talaga natin. And also, unlike dun sa ibang bansa, here in the Philippines, may mga bahay talaga na dikit-dikit, at saka, masaya talaga tayo dahil may mga kapitbahay tayo, eh sa ibang bansa nga, yung mga bahay nga talaga, hindi dikit-dikit, nakahiwalay talaga yun, at saka, kapitbahay pa rin talaga ang tawag pa rin dyan. And also, yung mga pangmayaman n...See More

My first post here is about Singapore:

DID YOU KNOW: Singapore is one of the richest and the most beautiful country in the world. Dun sa Singapore, masyado talaga maganda dun at saka, malinis pa talaga dun, eh, dito naman sa Pilipinas, yung mga ibang syudad, madumi, makalat pa, at saka, mausok pa, eh sa Makati at saka sa Ortigas naman, and also, The Fort in Taguig and the Bay City in Pasay, masyado maganda, malinis at saka walang mga madudumi dun (maliban lang sa trapik), eh yung Manila naman at saka sa QC, maganda naman talaga dun pero yung mga kalye at saka yung mga paligid dun ay masyadong marurumi, masyadong makalat at saka, medyo mausok dun. Mas wonderful pa nga talaga yung Singapore kesa dito sa Pilipinas.

Kayo diyan, mag post naman talaga kayo dito about dun sa Facts, Info and Trivia (pwede rin with photo o pwede rin i-Docs yan). Thank you.

The first Greek fraternity in the Philippines is the University of the Philippines' Upsilon Sigma Phi (established in 1918). It does not have any branches outside the UP system. Among its alumni are the preserved ex-President Ferdinand E. Marcos and his arch-nemesis, the late Senator Benigno 'Ninoy Forever' Aquino. The first sorority with a Greek name is Sigma Delta Phi, also at UP and sister sorority of Upsilon Sigma Phi, established in 1938. (Partly contributed by Butch Bandong.)

Sa tingin nyo, bakit nawala sa ere ang 99.5 RT, at saka, bakit pinalitan ito ng 99.5 Play FM, at saka, bakit resurrect ng resurrect ngayon ang 99.5 RT, at saka, bakit reformat ng reformat ngayon from RT into another one (pwede rin as a CHR station that copies the sister station, Magic 89.9, rock station, also ala-NU107, and hip-hop and R'nB station that also copies sister station, Wave 891, and also, kung gusto din nila, pwede rin talaga yan as a masa station, and also, 103.5 Wow FM copycat) (also, when the ratings went low), and bakit kapag nareresurrect yung 99.5 RT, bakit paiba-iba talaga ng playlist at genre (like yung dati, mga 2010-2012, also, when RT adopts the secondary slogan, The Drive, from playing the ala-Magic CHR, it plays the purely alternative and non-alternative rock music, and also, less CHR) (at saka, di ba, pwede naman talaga yan i-digital radio yan eh pag nandyan na po ang digital radio, and also, HD Radio sa Pilipinas) and what if 96.3 Easy Rock will be reformat into an ala-Magic CHR station (hindi lang puro love songs ang pinapatugtog) (and also, alternative to the sister masa stations, Love and YES!), ano'ng say nyo?

Sa halip ay ume-extend ang "Good Morning Kuya (GMK)" with its segment "Pondahan ni Kuya Daniel" hanggang 8:30am, and after that ay susunod na ang "Itanong Mo kay Soriano." At yung "Get It Straight with Daniel Razon", naging segment na nga ba ng GMK?

Birthplace of the Golden Age of Television

LIVE FEED By Bibsy M. Carballo (The Philippine Star) | Updated September 26, 2012 - 12:00am

0 6 googleplus0 0

Boots Anson-Roa co-hosting Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino

Having made it a habit to check out the free foreign film screenings that EDSA Shangri-La regularly sponsors, we readied ourselves for the barrage of students who always filled up Theater 2 at the sixth level. We were pleasantly surprised to find old colleagues Lito Ocampo Cruz and Tessie Taylor among them, and even happier to find that they had gone back to television, namely IBC-13.

Today, things are changing for IBC. A new board of directors has come in, appointed by President Noynoy Aquino, with Eric Canoy, who presides over Radio Mindanao Network as chairman and president, and Lito Ocampo Cruz, former VP of E! Entertainment TV Philippines for RMN, as network vice-president.

At the IBC headquarters at Broadcast City in Diliman, Lito detailed the future of the network and what great things this new board has in store. "When we came in two years ago, TV5 approached us. They wanted to set up a sports channel — AKTV," he begins. TV5 bought IBC's primetime block from 5 p.m. until 11 every night, provided programming, packaged it, promoted it and sold it. Programming rode on the popularity of basketball tournaments of the PBA and NCAA, as well as international ones like FIBA and NBA. There was also martial arts and World Wrestling Entertainment.

Beyond sports, however, IBC intends to increase its cultural and current events programming. Lito admitted that it isn't much right now but they intend to build on what it has. Right now, they have Cooltura, an educational show about Filipino culture hosted by Cathy Eigenmann, which first aired October of last year, and Express Balita, the network's flagship news program, which originally aired in 1994.

PBA Games lend new luster to IBC-13

As part of AO No. 26, IBC very recently handed over its archives to the Film and Development Council of the Philippines (FDCP). The old films forming part of our cultural heritage will be preserved and restored in a single national archive. There is tremendous cultural significance in that for us, "because I believe the Golden Age of Television started with 13," declared Lito.

"Everybody who started with Channel 13 became famous — newscasters, directors, writers — I can't even begin to name all of them. Channel 13 aired the country's first teleserye and situation comedy. Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino was the first popular entertainment show (way before The Buzz) back in the early '70s. Joe Quirino was the first Boy Abunda."

Entertainment ( Article MRec ), pagematch: 1, sectionmatch: 1

Lito detailed classics like Tito, Vic, and Joey, Cheek to Cheek, and the Dolphy specials. With AO No. 26, these archives will be restored and digitalized. "Hopefully by the end of next year, we will be able to show them again as IBC Classics. The people will remember the Golden Age of Television."

Even though IBC-13 is a government entity, it is run like a private corporation. Lito told us that the network receives no subsidy from the government. They generate enough income to support the station. Their partnership with TV5 brings sport fans a superior, digitally enhanced product that pushes them technologically ahead of its competition. They plan to build on its current affairs and cultural programming to bring to the Filipino people a well-rounded line-up of programs around the clock. Lito reminisced, "When we were 13, we were No. 1. Maybe, we can't be No. 1 again, but we are now in the public eye again. 13 is back and here to stay. 13 is alive and well again."

Paano kaya kung i-rebroadcast ng IBC 13 ang KCTV ng North Korea para mapuno airtime nila? o kaya bumili ng syndicated shows mula sa US?

It is mandated to all local free TV networks to submit programs (except news) for rating sa MTRCB, kaso lang, sino ang karapat-dapat na ipaskil ang ratings: ang network o ang producer? Explain shortly yet comprehensively.

Timothy John Liwanag Paragas Correct ang sagot mo, Jake. Sila dapat. Let me give you an example: "Show Up: Ang Bagong Game Show ng Bayan" on PTV. The show is not produced by PTV but by another producer, Meteor Entertainment Productions. Kahit tama ang rating na naibibigay mula sa MTRCB, sila rin yung naipaskil sa TV (more likely a post-production staff) rather than PTV. Tama naman ang kulay, hugis at text pero walang acceptable and strict standards from MTRCB.

Plano ko ito iparating kay Leo Lastimosa.

Napansin ko dati, na ang mga advertisers/advertising agencies ay ginagamit ng mga board at pintura para sa mga billboards. Sa ngayon, dito sa Cebu, merong ilang mga board billboards na naka-tayo pa rin hanggang ngayon pero puno na po ito sa mga kalawang nang dahil sa pag-babago ng panahon.

ANG TANONG: Bakit hindi na sila gumagamit ng mga tabla, kahoy at pintura para sa mga billboards ngayon at ang pumalit ito kay yung mga tarpaulins?

1. Islacom (1999) malapit sa gilid ng Mandaue-Mactan Bridge, Mandaue City, Cebu. Meron na itong kalawang.
2. Bioderm Soap (1995) sa M.L. Quezon Highway, Lapu-lapu City, Cebu. OK pa rin ang tablang paskilan, pero sayang, tinanggal ito noong nakaraang taon pa.
3. Isang produkto ng gamot na hindi ko alam o kilala (1980's o 90's) sa loob ng San Miguel compound, A.S. Fortuna Street, Mandaue City, Cebu. Ang luma-luma na yung board billboard, tsaka kupas na yung kanyang kulay, dahilan bakit hindi ko alam yung ina-advertise diyan.

So far, marami sa mga board billboards noon na nakita ko ay nandiyan sa Mandaue at Lapu-lapu City. Meron ding mga board billboards sa Cebu City, pero tinanggal nila ito kamakailan.

Speaking of business districts in the Philippines...

Bago naging business district ang buong uptown area, ang Colon Street at Magallanes Street sa Cebu

City muna. Pero, sa tingin ko, mas nauna ang Magallanes Street noong American period since ang Colon Street ay isang residential street. 1950's pa naging business district ang Colon Street.

Bado Ofilada Yah. And also, nag-stop na ang Escolta bilang business district kasi nasisiraan ang Pasig River ng dahil sa mga usok na nanggagaling sa mga building ng mga big businesses, that's why the big businesses was transferred to Makati and Ortigas, and also in BGC to prevent the Pasig River ugliness. Baka aanhin ulit yan ni Erap yang Escolta na yan, gawin na yan as a commercial, cultural and district center ng Maynila (with the historical buildings around such as the old Metrobank building, and the old Pioneer Insurance building, neon din yang Pioneer Insurance text na yan sa may building sa Escolta).

In 2005, Channel 39 frequency was acquired by Pastor Apollo C. - Roberto Benedicto (Philippine ambassador to Japan; owner of Traders Royal and Republic Planters' Banks, RPN-9, IBC-13, BBC-2, Sining Makulay, Philippines Daily Express, at Nivico)
- Antonio Floriendo (tried to monopolize the Philippine banana industry)
- Ricardo Silverio (his companies declared bankrupt in the early 80's)
- Rodolfo Cuenca (former owner of CDCP)
- Herminio Disini (Marcos crony engaged in manufacturing)

Sino pa kaya ang mga dating cronies ni Marcos, bukod sa mga sinabi ko sa taas?

Text message sa planong pamomomba, kumakalat

COTABATO CITY- LALO pang hinigpitan ng mga otoridad ang ipinapatupad na seguridad sa buong Mindanao matapos lumabas ang mga text message sa diumano'y planong pamomomba ng mga lawless elements.

Nakasaad sa nasabing text message na maglulunsad ng pamomomba ang grupo ng Bangsamoro Islamic Freedom Fighters-Special Operations Group (BIFF-SOG) kasama ang Abu Sayyaf Group (ASG) at Jemaah Islamiyah na pinamumunuan ni Basit Usman, Abdul Sulkeplie Marwan ng Liguasn Marsh at mga lider ng ASG na sina Idres Salindawan at Abu Hanief na nakabase sa Barangay Lanigding, Munai, Lanao del Norte.

Kasabay diumano sa pagtatapos ng Ramadan, magsasagawa ang mga ito ng serye ng pamomomba sa pagwakas ng Ramadan sa mga lungsod ng Iligan, Cagayan de Oro, Cotabato, Pagadian, Zamboanga, Davao, Tacurong City, Koronadal, General Santos at iba pang bahagi ng Maguindanao at Cotabato Province.

Kabilang sa target diumano ng mga masasamang grupo ang mga malls, airports, terminals at mga pampublikong lugar.

Napag-alaman na hindi lamang sa mga text kumakalat ang nasabing babala kundi maging sa mga social networking sites.

Yung posibleng target ngayon: Iligan, CDO, Davao (nag-start na ang Kadayawan), Cotabato, Pagadian, Zamboanga, Kidapawan, Tacurong, Koronadal, General Santos, even Maguindanao and Cotabato Province.

[TRIVIA, NO POLITICS INTENDED] Alam nyo ba na ilalaunch na sana ng ABS-CBN ang Bridges on the Air nang ideklara ni President Marcos ang martial law? Bridges on the Air was a project of ABS-CBN aiming to connect the Philippines through microwave broadcasts. (it was also one of Geny Lopez's dreams for ABS-CBN). Mataas ang ratings ng shows ng Channel 3 noon pero di nya masingil ng mas mataas na rates dahil sa di pa ganoon malawak ang TV. (ABS-CBN TV was subsidized by radio, malaki naman ang kita kaso lugi pa rin dahil sa mataas na capex). At 200,000 lang ang bilang ng TV sets noon. Di makarating ng Pampanga ang signal ng ABS-CBN noon, at sa Cebu at Iloilo may 2-week delay. Kung nakumpleto sana ito, marahil noong 1972 ay may market na 5-10 million viewers ang ABS-CBN (more viewers, more ad revenues). Nagset-up sila ng microwave facilities saniba't ibang bahagi ng Luzon at Visayas (mid-70s sa Mindanao), at noong July 1972 ay magka-test trial (through the airing of the national finals of Tawag ng Tanghalan). It was to be launched by 4th week of Sept. 1972, pero natigil dahil sa martial law. (SOURCE: KAPITAN)

Joshua Sabater Jimenez TV5 eyes rights to more Hollywood movies for revenue boost

September 14 at 5:43pm · Like

Joshua Sabater Jimenez MANILA - While its two biggest rivals are salivating over election-related ads to boost revenues, TV5 is banking on more Hollywood movies, the network's chief executive said on Tuesday.

On the sidelines of Philweb Corp's annual stockholders' meeting, Ray C. Espinosa, TV5 president, told InterAksyon.com that the network is working on trimming its losses this year by managing costs and expenses and improving its programming.

InterAksyon.com is the online news portal of TV5.

Espinosa said those in charge of programming meets weekly as TV5 is "closely monitoring" the performance of its shows.

"We're slowly but steadily developing the shows. The movie strategy -- which is a good one I think -- and the primetime are the pillars of our programming. We're still cultivating stars, talents. It takes a while," he said.

While it is developing a "deeper pool" of "creatives" such as writers, directors and talents, TV5 is gunning to acquire the rights to air bigger Hollywood movies, which are dubbed in Tagalog to attract a wider viewership, Espinosa said.

"That represents a big part of 2013 programming," he said, adding that the dubbed Hollywood films are shown in the afternoon and primetime.

To complement the Hollywood blockbusters, TV5 also airs primetime dramas, Espinosa said.

He said new Commission on Elections (Comelec) rules have restricted potential revenues from poll-related ads.

"Political ads are coming in. It will help a bit but remember the Comelec rule is quite restrictive so our ability as a third network to compete against two incumbent networks is sort of hemmed-in because of that," Espinosa said.

Nevertheless, TV5 is still getting these ads, both for TV and Radyo Singko, he said.

In February, the network joined other media groups in filing before the Supreme Court a petition questioning Comelec's ruling on TV and radio airtime. TV5, through parent company ABC Development Corp, also asked the court for a temporary restraining order.

Manuel V. Pangilinan, TV5 chairman, earlier said the network's losses in the second half of 2012 would likely mimic the P2.8 billion hemorrhage in first semester.

Bulk of the network's expenses consists of talent fees. TV5 will spend P6 billion this year to launch new programs and complete a state-of-the-art Media Center in Mandaluyong.

Admins, since malapit nang matapos ang revamp stage ng page natin, post rin kayo dun ng mga magazine ads about dun sa radio, TV, at iba pa (such as an ad about an Android phone), more logos, products (pero, walang promotion) and more, i-post nyo rin dun yung mga radio sign-ons and sign-offs (videos, posts, and notes), mag-post rin kayo dun ng voice-over and history ng mga radio stations sa Notes tab sa page natin, i-post nyo rin dun yung mga photo about dun sa location ng mga radio stations (such as yung location sa Baguio City kung saan matatagpuan ang 95.1 Love Radio at 91.9 Easy Rock), post also the more old radio schedules (photos and notes) and the complete reporters of DZBB, DZMM, DZRH, and DWIZ (gusto ko, may kasama ring photo ang mga complete reporters ng DZMM, with DZMM 1990 schedule advertisement na galing sa Manila Standard na kasama dyan yung Radyo Taliba), at saka, post rin kayo dun ng mga radio jingles, stingers and station IDs (past and present).

And bago natin i-promote ang page natin, gumawa kayo ng paraan kung paano mairevert at mai-edit tong username/page address ng page natin, from PinoyNostalgiaTVandMovies to PinoyNostalgiaTV (the former username) or simply PinoyNostalgia, and also, magtanong rin kayo sa mga kakilala nyo kung paano gumawa ng paraan na mairevert at mai-edit tong username/page address ng page natin, ang pangit kapag kasali dyan sa page address ang "andMovies" kasi kapag ni-like ito ng mga bagong tao, sasabihin Pinoy Nostalgia nga pero, bakit nandyan pa rin ang username na "andMovies" hanggang ngayon (na ang username na "PinoyNostalgiaTVandMovies"), nakakahiya yan, kasi baka mamaya, lalayas sila bigla at ayaw nila i-like yan, pagkatapos nun, may mga maguunlike sa page na to kasi di ba, hanggang ngayon, sa username ng page natin, nandyan pa rin ang "andMovies", nakaka-hatred yan sa ibang tao, ang pangit pag nandyan yung "andMovies" sa username ng page natin, kailangang maialis na to sa madaling panahon. Kung gusto dumami masyado ang likes, kailangang mairevert at ma-iedit na ang ating username/page address ng page natin. Bago natin mairevert at mai-edit ang username ng page natin, ayusin muna natin ang sistema ng page natin.

From IBC 13's website (via archive.org):

On the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

From a relatively unknown TV station, IBC 13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC 13 set a lot of firsts in the broadcasting industry. Showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13. Who could ever forget Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with JQ, T.O.D.A.S., See-True and a lot more? Back then, when one spoke of television, it's nothing but IBC 13.

Years passed. After EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation. New administrators meant new management.

IBC 13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past.

Now, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

Hmmm. Well, napansin ko sa ating page na medyo puro tungkol sa "radio stations" ang mga pinost recently. Pls. bawasan ang pag-post tungkol sa "radio stations". (In other words, hinay-hinay lang sa pag-post ng mga ganun.) It affects the name of the page, baka magiging "Pinoy Nostalgia Radio" yan muli. You can post some very important info/trivia about "radio stations" (Ex. bagong features, litrato ng kanilang mga tanggapan). Basta, hindi yung mga masyadong obvious, as in alam na ng mga tao (Ex. owner, history, format, reformat, sign on/off), since makikita nila yan sa Wikipedia.

What I'm trying to say is that we cannot always talk about "radio stations" in the page we're handling. So, imbes na puro "radio stations" ang ipo-post natin sa page, mag-post rin tayo tungkol sa mga interesting stuff, notably sa teknolohiya, musika, TV shows, movies, kultura, atbp., ng kahapon at ngayon. Hence, the name of the page.

Sana huwag kayong magagalit sa akin. I'm just making a suggestion para ma-improve yung page and to maintain its name. (What I said here only applies to our page. Pero, puwede pa rin tayong mag-post na kahit ano dito sa discussion group nito.)

Any sports programs na ipalabas doon ay PRODUCED BY BLOCK-TIMERS for example sa Shakey's V-League na pinoproduce ng Sports Vision.

John Rodrigo Diaz Valdez Kung eere ang PBA sa GMA, may malaking possibility na gagawa ng sports division ang GMA. Kung mangyari, tatawaging GMA Sports. PBA na lang talaga ang last chance nila na umangat sa ratings at talunin ang ABS-CBN.

Perry Patts Start from scratch yan sa kanila, kailangan nilang maghire nang maraming sports writers, columnists dahil konti lang plus kailangan nilang mag-acquire ng bagong equipment for sports programming, kailangan din sila mag-alot ng flexible airtime dahil alam naman natin na may mga games na nagkakaroon ng overtime.

GMA usually offers fixed blocktime at kailangan pa nila ng pagsasanay.

CEBU, Philippines - Why talk things over when you can sing about your feelings?

Tomorrow, Nov. 18, GMA Network launches "Ikaw Ug Ako," its newest musical television series or musikanovela that will surely change the morning habits of Kapuso viewers.

A program created in Venezuela originally entitled "Somos Tu Y Yo," "Ikaw Ug Ako" caters to viewers in Cebu, Davao, Cagayan de Oro, and General Santos as it is translated and dubbed in Bisaya.

Ikaw Ug Ako's story centers on the lives of young couple Cheryl and Victor who share a mutual passion for music. It is set at the Music and Talent Academy, a high school for performing arts, where their blossoming affections for each other will develop.

But just like any other love story, Cheryl and Victor's relationship has its ups and downs. Two other students, Rosmery and Aran, wish to end the pair's romance and they team up to try to separate the couple. Will they succeed?

Featured in its pilot episode are songs which are also translated and sung in Bisaya, including the series' theme song—"Ikaw Ug Ako."

Fall in love with Cheryl and Victor as they create romance and music in "Ikaw Ug Ako," airing every Monday to Friday beginning Nov. 18 at 9:55 a.m., on GMA Network's regional stations in Cebu, Davao, GenSan, and CDO. (PR) (FREEMAN)

ETC MOVES TO SBN-21 STARTING NOVEMBER 30

November 21, 2013 – Solar Entertainment Corporation (SEC) announces a new channel assignment for its leading youth channel, ETC. Starting November 30, 2013 ETC can be seen on UHF channel 21, Sky Cable and Destiny Digital Ch. 16, Global Destiny Ch. 28, Cignal Ch. 9, and Cable Link Ch. 34.

With the move, SEC has laid down plans to boost the reach of ETC to viewers. According to SEC's Chief Technology Officer Ralph Joseph S. Roy, by early next year a new state-of-the-art analog/ digital 60KW transmitter will be built for the channel. Running at a higher capacity and with a higher elevation, this looks to boost ETC's reach to viewers in Mega Manila by 30 percent. For the rest of the country transmitters will go up in key areas such as Bacolod, Cebu, Zamboanga, Davao, and Legazpi.

From Monday to Saturday, ETC offers viewers the hottest and latest shows and episode's straight from the United States. Stay up to date in the world of entertainment with the channel's vast lineup of Match-Airing titles that include: award-winning musical Glee, hilarious sitcom's New Girl and Super Fun Night, supernatural drama's The Vampire Diaries, The Originals, Ravenswood, and Beauty and the Beast, and the colorful 80's teen drama The Carrie Diaries.

This coming 2014 the channel is working on airing more of its popular series day and date with the U.S. just like the airing of its hit show Glee that ETC airs via satellite.

Adding to ETC's Match-Airing line-up in January is the return of the mystery-thriller Pretty Little Liars, and the long-running reality singing-competition American Idol. Also joining the channel in 2014 is the period drama Reign, which follows the early years of Mary, Queen of Scots, and the sci-fi romance drama Star-Crossed that tells the story of a relationship between a human girl and an alien boy. Viewers can look forward to more big movies under the channel's movie block "ETC Flix" including Bridesmaids, Crazy Stupid Love, and The Devil Wears Prada.

As ETC embarks on a stronger reach on the airwaves, they also look to conquering online too. Fans of the channel can log onto <http://www.blink-now.com/> to watch ETC's free live streaming on a computer, with mobile services being rolled out in the coming months for even more ways to watch.

Starting November 30, 2013 ETC is seen on UHF channel 21, Sky Cable and Destiny Digital Ch. 16, Global Destiny Ch. 28, Cignal Ch. 9, Cable Link Ch. 34 and various cable operators nationwide.

ay nag-last day na po ng kanilang live simulcast sa TV kaninang madaling araw po, tapos sabi po ni ate Laila sa Morning Calls eh may maintenance daw po tuwing 12am-5pm.
